

I believe the no call list needs to stay in place. Since placing my phone numbers on the list it has cut the amount of unwanted calls down a great deal. It is such a pain when they continue to call over and over and over. Please do not allow them to bother us with their calls again.